

Information, Consent and Policies

We are honored that you have selected the Woodlands Family Institute to provide counseling or psychological services. All of us wish to do our best to assist you in making this experience meaningful and fruitful. This document is designed to inform you about my background and to ensure that you understand our professional relationship.

I have been working in the field of Psychology since 1976. I was a Licensed School Psychologist in Florida for several years before moving to Texas. I am currently recognized by the state of Texas as a Licensed Psychologist, as well as a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist, and a Licensed Professional Counselor. I am also a Certified Imago therapist and a Certified EMDR therapist. My expertise includes preschool, child, adolescent, adult, marriage, family, and group psychotherapy.

I hold an abiding belief that no matter how difficult a person's circumstances may be, it is possible to produce meaningful change. I view the therapeutic relationship as collaboration with my client on a unique journey towards self-enhancement, wellness and goal attainment. My theoretical basis takes into consideration the developmental stage of not only the individual but the family as well. In this effort, we explore the emotional and psychological demands of individuation, interpersonal and adaptive coping skill development. Sometimes this takes a long time to achieve. While some clients need only a few sessions to reach their goals, others may require months or longer. This is truly an individual quest. As a client, you are in complete control and may end our professional relationship at any point. I will be supportive of that decision. Ultimately, my job is to work myself out of a job, so that you feel confident to carry on without my intervention.

My expectations of my clients are to keep scheduled appointments, be forthright about issues and goals and take an active and engaging role in the process.

If at any time you are dissatisfied with my services, please let me know. Sessions can evoke strong emotions and sometimes influence unanticipated changes in one's behavior. It is important that you discuss with me any questions or discomfort you may have during the process. I may be able to help you understand the experience or use a different approach that may be more effective for you.

I assure you that our work will be conducted in a conscientious manner consistent with accepted ethical standards. Please note that it is not possible to guarantee any specific results regarding your goals. However, together we will work to achieve the best possible results.

Please be aware that I do not provide consultation, evaluation, or legal testimony in child custody, child visitation, or molestation cases. If you require these services, I will be happy to refer you to professionals who work with these issues.

Children can be joyful and energetic, but with respect to the concerns which brought you to us, we request that you obtain a sitter for children not receiving treatment so that our full attention can be devoted to your priorities.

Although our sessions may be very intimate psychologically, it is important for you to realize that we have a professional relationship rather than a social one. Our contact will be limited to sessions you arrange with me. It may be confusing and counter-productive for me to accept gifts or be invited to social gatherings. So please do not ask me to relate to you in any way other than in the professional context of our sessions. I want your sessions to be safe and secure as possible so that we concentrate exclusively on your concerns. You are best served by experiencing me in my professional role.

Office Policies

_____ Initial:

Fees Schedule: All fees for services or co-pay amounts are due at the time of the appointment. For payment, please see the office staff prior to each appointment. Follow-up appointments will not be honored if your account is overdue. If an outstanding balance accrues, you will be billed on the first of the month and assessed a 2% finance charge, compounded monthly. There is a $10.00 rebilling fee for every statement sent out after the first billing. There is also a $25.00 fee for each check returned for insufficient funds. After 90 days with no payments or effort to arrange payment, accounts will be turned over to a collection agency and will impact your credit rating.

Regular Session fee: $250.00 (50-minute duration)

Couples Session FIRST visit fee: $285.00 (this is a one time session fee only)

After hour's session fee: $390.00

Miscellaneous: Charges for other professional services are prorated on the basis of $250.00 per hour, 15-minute increments. These services include, but are not limited to, phone calls, insurance reports, third-party consultations, and correspondence. Off-site consultation is prorated at the rate of $250.00 per hour, "portal to portal", that is, for the time I am out of the office on your behalf.

_____ Initial:

Legal testimony: Please be advised that I do not provide consultation, evaluation or legal expert testimony in child custody, child visitation or molestation cases.

Similarly, I do not consider my practice to include expert testimonials. However, should my opinion be so ordered, fees will be charged at the rate of $2,000.00 per hour, portal to portal. A retainer of 10,000.00 is required prior to the provision of any services including, but not limited to depositions, interrogatories, pre-testimony preparation, and consultation. All fees of this nature are payable in advance.

_____ Initial:

Medicare: None of the counselors/therapists at Woodlands Family Institute, P.C. are Medicare providers. All clients on Medicare, or are eligible for Medicare, must sign the federally mandated "Private Contract" to receive services at our practice. All services must be paid at the time of service, and neither WFI, its counselors/therapists, nor the client may file a claim to Medicare OR Medicare's Supplemental Plans for reimbursement.

Are you on Medicare or Medicare Eligible? Yes No

If yes, please notify your counselor/therapist BEFORE your first session so you can sign the Medicare Opt Out Private Contract. This is required for all Medicare or Medicare Eligible clients.

Medicaid: We are not accepting any Medicaid patients; we will only accept "Private Pay" patients. We will not file any claims to Medicaid for reimbursement of your medical services now or at any time in the future.

_____ Initial:

Office hours: Tuesday through Thursday, 9:00am-7:00pm. Friday, the office staff is available 8:00am-3:00pm. Any hours beyond stated office hours (Tues-Thurs.) are considered as "after hours" and will be charged accordingly. After hours time is generally reserved for family time and self-care.

_____ Initial:

Cancellations: The scheduling of an appointment involves the reservation of time specifically for you. Therefore, 24 hours cancellation notice is required so that there will be no charge to your account.

PLEASE CALL THE OFFICE TO CANCEL AN APPOINTMENT. EMAILS ARE NOT MONITORED FOR CANCELLATIONS. If you are unable to meet this time schedule, but we are able to assign your appointment time to another client, you will not be charged. Due to the fact that your appointment is contracted time specifically set-aside for you, cancellations in advance will be appreciated. Please note that insurance companies do not reimburse for missed appointments.

_____ Initial:

Insurance: Your health insurance policy is a contract between you and your insurance company. Clients who carry insurance should remember that professional services are rendered and charged to the client and not to the insurance company. Some insurance companies reimburse clients for services and some do not. Those that do usually require a standard amount to be paid by you before reimbursement is allowed, and then usually a percentage of the fee is reimbursable. The client remains responsible for payment in full, including any portion not reimbursed by insurance. Please be aware that third-party payers require the provision of a diagnosis and supporting clinical data. We have no control over the confidentiality procedure of third parties once clinical information leaves this office. In all likelihood, a computer record will be generated. The office staff will provide you with insurance-ready receipts for filing your claim. WFI does not file out-of-network insurance claims.

_____ Initial:

Confidentiality: All information disclosed within sessions is confidential and may be revealed only in certain situations. At times I may legally and/or ethically be required to share information about you without your consent. Such situations are, but are not limited to the following:

- Information released to other professionals involved in your treatment.
- If you are under 18, your parents or legal guardian(s) may have access to your records and may authorize their release to other parties.

- If you are determined to be in imminent danger of harming yourself or someone else unless protective measures are taken.
- If you disclose abuse or neglect of children, the elderly, or disabled persons. In the instance of reasonable suspicion of child or elder abuse.
- If you disclose sexual misconduct by a therapist.
- To individuals, corporations or governmental agencies involved in paying or collecting fees for services (this includes insurance companies).
- In criminal court proceedings.
- In legal or regulatory actions against a professional.
- In proceedings in which a claim is made about one's physical, emotional, or mental condition.
- When disclosure is relevant in any suit affecting the parent-child relationship. This includes divorce and child custody deliberations.
- Where otherwise legally required.

Please be advised that insurance reimbursement usually requires background information, including substance abuse, diagnostic criteria and treatment plan form completion. In addition, please note that most applications for health insurance include a release of information for medical records (this would include therapy/counseling records).

7. _____ Initial:

Emergency services: It is assumed that outpatient clients are self-responsible, autonomous, and not in need of day-to-day supervision. Outpatient clinicians cannot assume responsibilities for clients' day-to-day functioning, as can agencies or inpatient hospital settings. Nevertheless, in the event that an emergency occurs, leave a message with the answering service, making sure to state that your call is an emergency. We will respond to your call as promptly as possible. Routine calls will be returned during normal office hours. We can be reached at 281-363-4220 or 713-866-4494. If we are unable to respond quickly enough, please call 911 or your local emergency room.

Having read the policies described above, I agree to all professional policies, agree to meet all financial obligations, and agree that this contract replaces any earlier contracts. Additionally, I understand that there can be no guarantee of a cure in the practice of psychotherapy.

Client Information Statement

The Texas Boards of Examiners of Licensed Psychologists, Marriage and Family Therapists, Licensed Social Workers and Licensed Professional Counselors were established by the legislature to protect the public. In fulfilling its mission, the Boards enacted rules governing the practice of psychology, family therapy, and counseling. These rules require that a therapist provide prospective clients with sufficient information about the therapeutic process so that the client can make an informed decision whether or not to enter therapy. Attached to this Information Statement is a general information statement, Agreement for Services, and the information regarding the procedures or psychotherapy in general and our office policies.

After reading the agreements, please ask about any part of the agreement that you do not understand.

Notice of Policies and Practices to Protect the Privacy of Your Health Information

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW PSYCHOLOGICAL AND MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

I. Uses and Disclosures for Treatment, Payment, and Health Care Operations

Woodlands Family Institute (WFI) may use or disclose your protected health information (PHI), for treatment, payment, and health care operations purposes with your general consent. To help clarify these terms, here are some definitions:

- “PHI” refers to information in your health record that could identify you.
- “Treatment, Payment and Health Care Operations”
Treatment is when we provide, coordinate or manage your health care and other services related to your health care. An example of treatment would be when I consult with another health care provider, such as your family physician or a colleague.
Payment is when we obtain reimbursement for your healthcare. Examples of payment are when we disclose your PHI to your health insurer to obtain reimbursement for your health care or to determine eligibility or coverage.
Health Care Operations are activities that relate to the performance and operation of my practice. Examples of health care operations are quality assessment and improvement activities, business-related matters such as audits and administrative services, and case management and care coordination.
- “Use” applies only to activities within WFI such as utilizing information that identifies you.
- “Disclosure” applies to activities outside of WFI, such as releasing, transferring, or providing access to information about you to other parties.

II. Uses and Disclosures Requiring Authorization

We may use or disclose PHI for purposes outside of treatment, payment, and health care operations when your appropriate authorization is obtained. An “authorization” is written permission above and beyond the general consent that permits only specific disclosures. In those instances when we are asked for information for purposes outside of treatment, payment and health care operations, we will obtain an authorization from you before releasing this information. We will also need to obtain an authorization before releasing your psychotherapy notes. “Psychotherapy notes” are notes we have made about our conversation regarding a private, group, joint, or family counseling session. These notes are given a greater degree of protection than PHI.

You may revoke all such authorizations (of PHI or psychotherapy notes) at any time, provided each revocation is in writing. You may not revoke an authorization to the extent that (1) we have relied on that authorization; or (2) if the authorization was obtained as a condition of obtaining insurance coverage, and the law provides the insurer the right to contest the claim under the policy.

III. Uses and Disclosures with Neither Consent nor Authorization

We may use or disclose PHI without your consent or authorization in the following circumstances:

- Child Abuse: If we have cause to believe that a child has been, or may be, abused, neglected, or sexually abused, we must make a report of such within 48 hours to the Texas Department of Protective and Regulatory Services, the Texas Youth Commission, or to any local or state law enforcement agency.
- Abuse of the Elderly and Disabled: If we have cause to believe that an elderly or disabled person is in a state of abuse, neglect, or exploitation, we must immediately report such to the Department of Protective and Regulatory Services.
- Sexual Misconduct by a therapist: If you report to us any situation that constitutes sexual misconduct by a current or former therapist, then we are required to inform the licensing authority of the offending therapist.
- Regulatory Oversight: If a complaint is filed against a therapist with a regulatory authority, they have the authority to subpoena confidential mental health information relevant to that complaint.
- Judicial or Administrative Proceedings: If you are involved in a court proceeding and a request is made for information about your diagnosis and treatment and the records thereof, such information is privileged under state law, and we will not release information, without written authorization from you or your personal or legally appointed representative, or a court order. The privilege does not apply when you are being evaluated for a third party or where the evaluation is court ordered. You will be informed in advance if this is the case.
- Serious Threat to Health or Safety: If we determine that there is a probability of imminent physical injury by you to yourself or others, or there is a probability of immediate mental or emotional injury to you, we may disclose relevant confidential mental health information to medical or law enforcement personnel.

- Worker's Compensation: If you file a worker's compensation claim, we may disclose records relating to your diagnosis and treatment to your employer's insurance carrier.

IV. Client's Rights and Our Professional Duties

Client's Rights:

- Right to Request Restrictions –You have the right to request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures of protected health information about you. However, we are not required to agree to a restriction you request.
- Right to Receive Confidential Communications by Alternative Means and at Alternative Locations – You have the right to request and receive confidential communications of PHI by alternative means and at alternative locations. (For example, you may not want a family member to know that you are seeking our services. Upon your request, we will send bills or other correspondence to another address.)
- Right to Inspect and Copy – You have the right to inspect or obtain a copy (or both) of PHI and psychotherapy notes in my mental health and billing records used to make decisions about you for as long as the PHI is maintained in the record. We may deny your access to PHI under certain circumstances, but in some cases you may have this decision reviewed. On your request, we will discuss with you the details of the request and denial process.
- Right to Amend – You have the right to request an amendment of PHI for as long as the PHI is maintained in the record. We may deny your request. On your request, we will discuss with you the details of the amendment process.
- Right to an Accounting – You generally have the right to receive an accounting of disclosures of PHI for which you have neither provided consent nor authorization (as described in Section III of this Notice). On your request, we will discuss with you the details of the accounting process.
- Right to a Paper Copy – You have the right to obtain a paper copy of the notice from me upon request, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically.

Our Professional Duties:

- We are required by law to maintain the privacy of PHI and to provide you with a notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to PHI.
- We reserve the right to change the privacy policies and practices described in this notice. Unless we notify you of such changes, however, we are required to abide by the terms currently in effect.
- If we revise our policies and procedures, we will post a current copy in our offices. A current copy will always be available on our web site and you may request a personal copy.

V. Questions and Complaints

If you have questions about this notice, disagree with a decision we make about access to your records, or have other concerns about your privacy rights, you may contact Miranda Butler, Office Manager, or your therapist at (281) 363-4220.

If you believe that your privacy rights have been violated and wish to file a complaint with our office, you may send your written complaint to the office manager or your therapist at: 1610 Woodstead Ct., Suite 420, The Woodlands, TX 77380.

You may also send a written complaint to the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. The person listed above can provide you with the appropriate address upon request.

You have specific rights under the Privacy Rule. We will not retaliate against you for exercising your right to file a complaint.

VI. Effective Date, Restrictions and Changes to Privacy Policy

This notice will go into effect on 3/28/2005. We reserve the right to change the terms of this notice and to make the new notice provisions effective for all PHI that we maintain. We will provide you with a revised notice in our lobby and on our web site. You may request a personal copy at any time.
